Dear Colleague!

We would like to invite you to take part in our residential course "Creativity and Thinking Skills in Language Education" which is organised for various groups of education professionals interested in the development of learners' creativity and thinking skills when teaching a foreign language.

The course is included in the Comenius/Grundtvig catalogue of the European Commission and is eligible for funding that covers all costs associated with it.

WHEN

- 30 Sep -06 Oct 2012

Deadline for grant applications in your National Agency is 29 April 2012

WHY

- Provide the participants with tools for the development of creativity and thinking skills in language education.

WHERE

- Cantalupa, Italy (30 km from Turin, the capital of the Piedmont region of Italy)

WHO

- Language teachers and teacher trainers (any language).
- Policy makers and educational administrators.
- Specialists interested in the development of thinking skills.

You can find video excerpts from the previous course on our You Tube channel.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for any further information.

On behalf of the trainers' team,
 Alexander

ABOUT US

TA Group is an educational company with the main field of interest in the development of technologies for teaching thinking skills and dispositions of various groups of learners. Among other activities we are involved in the development of materials that aim at the integrated development of thinking and subject matter skills. Taking part in various educational projects we are looking for colleagues who share our interest in teaching thinking. Taking part in one of the courses is a good context for you to get to know our approach and decide on possible cooperation.
