Jeep Safari - Thorsmork & The South Coast at 9:00

We start by driving in our modified super trucks along the south shore, heading for one of the places that Icelanders appreciate most, Thorsmork (The Woods of Thor).

On the way we make a stop at Seljalandsfoss waterfall to walk behind the waterfall and at a small glacial lagoon.

Many glacial rivers have to be crossed on the way to Thorsmork which is situated in a valley the south of Iceland surrounded by three glaciers and mountains which create favorable circumstances for growth for the over 170 plant species you can find in the area. Many walking paths are marked in Thorsmork, making it an ideal place for short hikes with views of glaciers, woodlands and other colorful landscape.
